

Curriculum Vitae

1. Name: KIM, Don-Q (金東奎)

2. Date of Birth: 28 March 1969

3. Academic Career

1987-1992 Seoul National University (B.A. in political science)

1992-1995 Seoul National University (M.A. in political thought)

2008-2010 University of Cambridge (M.Phil. in international relations)

2011- University of Cambridge (Ph.D. course in East Asian studies)

1997-2000 ROK Naval Academy (Lecturer in war studies)

2005-2007 Myongji University, Seoul (Lecturer in North Korean studies &
Deputy Director for the Institute of North Korean Studies)

4. Other Career

1995 Passed the Higher Civil Service Examination (Foreign Service)

1996-2004 Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (Foreign Service officer)

- Assistant Director, Central European Affairs Division

- Principal Secretary to Trade Minister

- Deputy Director, Inter-Korean Affairs Division

- Member, Diplomatic Taskforce for the Six-Party Talks

5. Publication

1992 (co-translation) Leo Strauss, et al, History of Political Philosophy

2005 (co-translation) Maurizio Viroli, Republicanism

6. Writings

M.A. Thesis (Seoul National University): "Leo Strauss' Critique of Carl Schmitt"

M.Phil. Thesis (University of Cambridge): "Subjectivity and Democratic Peace:
Meiji Family Law Controversy and Japanese Imperialism"